

FAQ for Ministry of Education Outstanding Overseas Chinese Graduate Student Scholarships

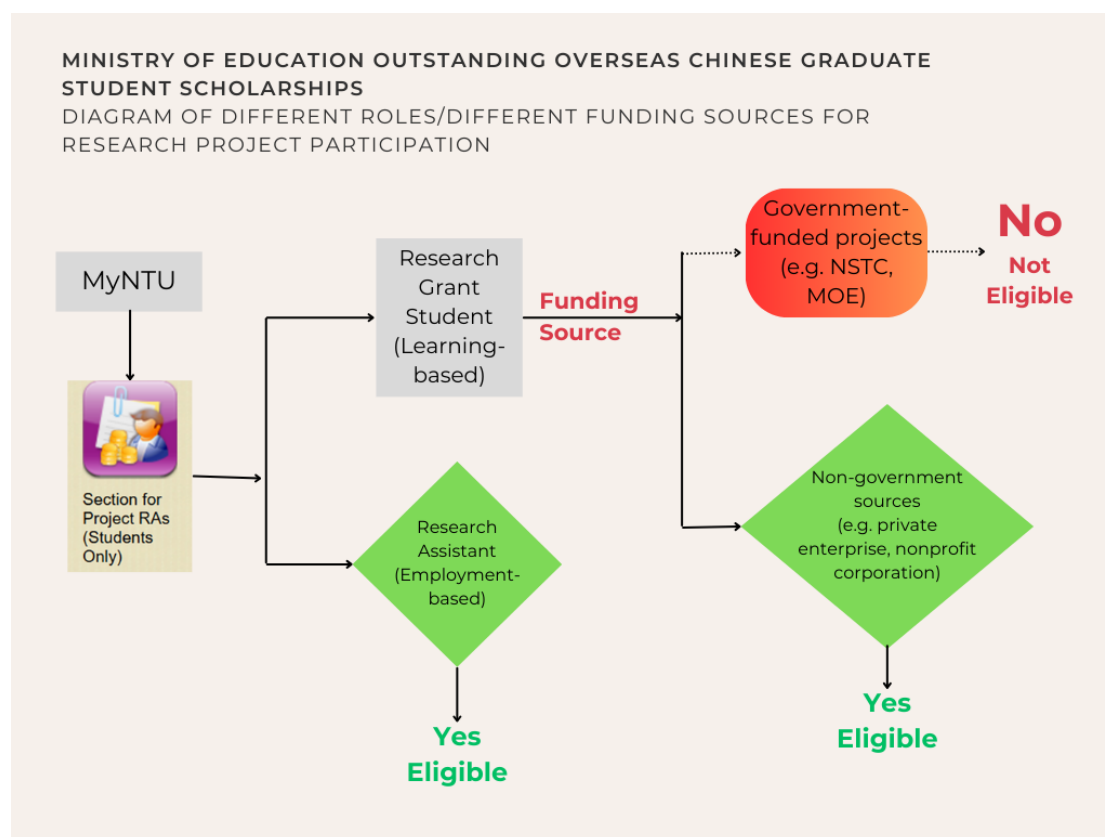

Q1 : I am already receiving a research grant from a project. Can I still apply for this scholarship?

Ans :

The Ministry of Education Outstanding Overseas Chinese Graduate Student Scholarships is funded by the Ministry of Education (MOE). According to MOE regulations, recipients of other government project grants are not eligible for this scholarship.

Students who have not received government-funded project grants (e.g., from the National Science and Technology Council (NSTC) or Ministry of Education) during the scholarship period are eligible to apply.

For overseas Chinese graduate students serving as research assistants, eligibility depends on the type of role and funding source :

Type	Funding Source	Eligibility
Research Assistant (Employment-based)	Government or Non-government	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Eligible (Considered as salary income)
Research Grant Student (Learning-based)	Non-government sources	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Eligible

Type	Funding Source	Eligibility
Research Grant Student (Learning-based)	Government-funded projects	✗ Not Eligible

✦ Key Point :

Research projects have diverse funding sources, including : Government grants (e.g., MOE, NSTC) 、 Private enterprise funding 、 Foundation grants 、 Self-raised funds. Eligibility should be determined by the project's funding source. If the project is not funded by a government agency, the scholarship eligibility is not restricted.

Q2 : How can I verify the funding source of a research project?

Ans :

It is recommended to consult :

Your research project advisor

The project's principal investigator (PI)

The financial or administrative staff responsible for managing the project's budget

This ensures accurate verification of the funding source and confirms your eligibility for this scholarship.
